

Do not submit us to the many dangers that cell phone use during flight could result in. Usage on the ground after arrival and before departure is adequate enough. In such a crowded environment it is as inappropriate and rude as smoking once was!